

Casa Grande comes to Kovai

Casa Grande Pvt. Ltd., one of Chennai's leading real estate enterprise, has forayed into the industrial city of Coimbatore with a proposed launch of an exclusive villa project.

Speaking on the venture planned in the city, Arun Kumar, managing director says, "Casa Grande has always believed in building aspirations and fulfilling them by providing quality living spaces being transparent and fair. After successful projects in Chennai, Coimbatore was the next logical step towards expansion and another opportunity for us to bring value to the customers. We will be targeting a turnover of ₹50 crores for the region for the year 2012-13 with plans of doing more than 200crs in the next couple of years."

Senthil Kumar, managing partner, Coimbatore region says "Coimbatore is a potential real estate market for luxury homes like villas and row houses and with expertise of building them in Chennai, we would be able to translate the same in Coimbatore. The proposed independent and semi independent luxury villa project will bring a whole new standard of living in Coimbatore."

Set amidst a lush green cover, the project is facilitated with best connectivity and is located 7 kms off Avinashi Road from Sitra, Airport Junction on the Kalapatti - Kurumbapalayam Road. The exclusive gated community features all lifestyle amenities like club house with pool, guest rooms, health club, and state-of-the art infrastructure.
